

Nolan Hesko Biography

Nolan Hesko is a graduate of Campbell University where he obtained his Bachelors in Business Degree and earned his PGA Membership. He is a Teaching and Fitting Professional at The James Leitz Academy at Tchefuncta Country Club. Nolan has worked at some of the finest clubs in the United States and is excited to bring his experience to Tchefuncta.

Nolan has a passion for teaching others the game and seeing them enjoy the game as much as he does. Nolan arrives at Tchefuncta Country Club after being the Senior Assistant Golf Professional at Essex Fells Country Club in Essex Fells, NJ. Nolan lead the PGA Junior League Program and Junior Golf Programs.

Before working at Essex Fells, Nolan worked at Mountain Lake Club located in Lake Wales Florida. He administered tournaments and also taught the Ladies Golf Programs. Before working at Mountain Lake, Nolan was at the prestigious Deepdale Golf Club in Long Island where he worked under Top Putting Teaching Darrell Kestner who formerly taught Tour Golf Professionals. He has also had the opportunity to shadow David Orr, Kelly Mitchum, Brian Gaffney, and other professionals in teaching expertise. With Nolan's experience he is excited to grow golfers and get new golfers into the game!
